Department of Human Services
2006 Enhanced Child Support Enforcement Committee

The Department of Human Services is committed to monitoring and studying child support laws in order to implement and improve Tennessee's Child Support System. The 2006 Enhanced Child Support Enforcement Committee has been established to study child support laws that might present obstacles to effective child support enforcement and to make recommendations to improve enforcement practices.

The committee members include various persons with expertise and experience with child support issues. The 2006 Enhanced Child Support Enforcement Committee will hold its first meeting on September 8, 2006 and its second and final meeting on September 29, 2006. The meetings will take place at Citizens Plaza State Office Building, 15th Floor Auditorium, 400 Deaderick Street, Nashville, Tennessee 37248 at 10:00 a.m. (Central Time).

Any individuals with disabilities who wish to participate in these meetings should contact the Department of Human Services at (615)-313-4731 to discuss any auxiliary aids or services needed for participation. Initial contact may be made no less than ten (10) days prior to the scheduled meeting dates, to allow time for the Department of Human Services to determine how it may reasonably provide such aid or services.

For questions concerning the committee, please contact Connie Wilkes, Legal Assistant, citizens Plaza Building, 400 Deaderick Street, Nashville, Tennessee 37248 and (615) 313-4731 or by e-mail at conswell.a.r.wilkes@state.tn.us.
